

Elisabetta Clementel

A self-motivated, professional plants person who is horticulturally trained to degree level. Has worked in design both on private commissions and with a small garden on Main Avenue at Chelsea Flower Show. Has been working in top private London gardens for garden contractors and as Freelance Garden Designer. Needs now to use her horticultural expertise in an environment where she can be both creative and practical. Good at working independently as well as part of a team; used to taking responsibilities and able to supervise projects and staff if required

Hyde Park Residence Ltd | Head Gardener

Head Gardener for a 21 acres private estate owned by an UHNW individual

January 2016 – September 2018

Clifton Nurseries Ltd | Section Manager <https://www.clifton.co.uk/>

After working for the outdoor plant nursery as maintenance and as a sales person I have been promoted to Section Manager for the historical Glasshouse. My job included the maintenance of the plants, outside and inside, to the highest standards, as expected in the most ancient nursery in London. Outstanding customer service and creative buying of pots and plants, whilst managing a small team of five.

August 2014 - December 2015

Landscape Associates Ltd | Team Leader <http://www.landscapeassociates.co.uk/>

Maintenance of private gardens in Central London designed by Giubbilei, Del Buono and Charlotte Rowe among others. Managing a team of two people to keep the gardens to the highest standards accordingly to the client needs. Working on different garden styles: woodland, topiaries, lawns, herbaceous perennials, trees, bulbs and vegetable plots. The role involves a hands-on approach and wonderful organizational skills
